Department of Visual & Dramatic Arts
Mavis C. Pitman Exhibition Fellowship
Application and Coversheet

Application Deadline: Anually, November 1
Submit application to: Rachel Boyle, Department Coordinator
Department of Visual & Dramatic Arts
Rice Media Center, Room 206

NOTE: Electronic applications are not accepted.

The Mavis C. Pitman Endowment, in the Department of Visual and Dramatic Arts, awards three cash fellowships each year to visual arts, studio track majors. The fellowships support the creation of an original body of work to be exhibited in the Department of Visual & Dramatic Arts gallery in the Rice Media Center during the spring semester. In addition, fellowship recients may be eligible to receive additional funds for an exhibition reception and announcement card.

Fellowship recipients are responsible for creating an original body of work to be exhibited (open media); curating, hanging, and setting up the exhibition; creating an original graphic (representing and including all three artists) for exhibition announcements (postcards, space on the department website, and inclusion in the department calendar); preparing a ten-minute exhibition talk about the work; and coordinating the exhibition's opening reception.

Applications must include:

- ☐ Completed application coversheet.
- ☐ One-page exhibition proposal summary that includes:
  a. Brief description of the concept or theme behind your proposed show.
  b. "Vision statement" describing how you would like to see these works presented.
- ☐ Budget (not to exceed $1,300).
- ☐ Portfolio of current/proposed work (CD/ROM, PowerPoint format).

A studio visit may be necessary as part of the application process. At the time of the studio visit, be prepared to answer questions from faculty members, to present an artist's statement, and describe or show the works you wish to present in this public forum.
